

TOOL 3-6

Patient and Family Education Resources

MOLST Website	Overview of the MOLST process and form and access to educational materials	http://www.molst-ma.org/patients-families
MOLST Brochure	Hard copy tri-fold brochure with introductory information	http://www.molst-ma.org/consumers/brochure
FAQ - Patients and Families	Answers to “Frequently Asked Questions” from patients and their families	http://www.molst-ma.org/consumers/faq
MOLST video	13 minute video with stories and comments about MOLST and end-of-life experiences from patients, family members, health providers, clergy and others	http://www.molst-ma.org/molst-stories Or call 508-856-5890 for a DVD copy
Sample MOLST form	The two-page Massachusetts MOLST form marked SAMPLE and not for actual use	http://www.molst-ma.org/sites/molst-ma.org/files/final_MOLST_expansion_form_with_sample%20%281%29.pdf
Health Care Proxy form	Advance Directive form to be used by all adults in Massachusetts (18 years old and older), whether healthy or sick, to designate a health care agent	http://www.molst-ma.org/sites/molst-ma.org/files/MA-Health-Care-Proxy-Form.pdf
About the MOLST form	Explains the contents of the MOLST form and what patients and families should discuss with a physician, nurse practitioner or physician assistant before using MOLST	http://www.molst-ma.org/consumers/the-form-explained
Difference between MOLST and a Health Care Proxy form	Both forms may be used as a part of advance care planning, but they are used at different times for different reasons	http://www.molst-ma.org/node/89
Glossary of Terms	Definitions of words often used during advance care planning discussions	http://www.molst-ma.org/resources/glossary-of-terms
Better Ending Website	A web site that helps individuals plan in advance for serious illness before a medical emergency occurs	http://www.betterending.org/
MA End of Life Care Commission website	End of life services Resource Guide	http://www.endoflifecommission.org/en_d_pages/guide.htm
Hospice and Palliative Care Federation of Massachusetts website	A guide to hospice and palliative care in MA for patients, family members and friends	http://hospicefed.org/